Background Information:

In the morning of May 2, 2017, the victim, Mr. Nguyen Huu Tan, was abducted by the Vietnamese police while going out for his morning coffee as usual. That evening, about two hundred plainclothes and uniformed police escorted him home, surrounded the house, blocked off the streets, and conducted a house search that lasted several hours. He was accused of disseminating anti-State documents under Article 88 of the country's Penal Code. Even though the police did not find any evidence to substantiate their accusation, they read the Emergency Arrest Notice and took the victim away shortly after midnight. He was detained at the Temporary Detention Center of Vinh Long Provincial Police Department. Less than 10 hours later (May 3), the victim died with multiple fatal injuries: a cut on his throat that was almost from ear to ear; the gap of the cut was about 2 inches, his windpipe severed, his neck bone exposed. There was a bruise on the victim's forehead and the skull was mushy on his left temple.

The police have been pressuring the victim's family to accept their version of suicide as cause of death. Despite promises by Colonel Pham Van Ngan, the Vice Director of Vinh Long Provincial Police Department, and other top-ranking provincial officials that an investigation was underway and the victim's family would be provided a clear answer about his death, the police held press conference and meeting with state-owned media, local organizations and state-sanctioned religious groups and declared that the victim, Mr. Nguyen Huu Tan, had committed suicide by cutting his own throat with a letter opener. Vinh Long police continue to intensify their threats against the victim's family and threaten to arrest all adult members of the family for conducting anti-state activities. By doing so, the police aim to silence the victim's family and end their quest for a thorough investigation into his death. The entire family is extremely frightened and fearing for their lives. Two of the three surviving brothers fled home and are now living in exile in their own country.
